Miss Eunice Smith and James and Wesley Franklin were the guests of Miss Florence Smith Wednesday night.

Agricultural boys of the local high school have agreed to support one needy family this winter, according to Miss Eula May Burke. Tom Richardson and Lawrence Moore representing Prof. R. W. Wilkins's class, appeared before the Red Cross this week and made the offer.

The local chapter of the Red Cross is still appealing to the public to give old shoes, clothing and bed covering to relieve the needy in the county. Such donations may be left with Mrs S. L. Ferguson, Don Moses, Mrs. J. A. Burke, or Miss Eula May Burke.

Jones Caldwell visited his sister, Mrs. S. B. Marshall, of Charleston, W. Va., over the week-end and his sister, Mrs. J. L. Eversole, of Hazard, Ky., came with him home to spend the Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Caldwell.

H. H. Cadlwell had the misfortune to loose his stable and four cows and two fine horses by fire last week, with a total loss with no insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hudgins and his sister, Mrs. C. L. Goodman, of Newport News, returned today from Roanoke, where Mrs. Goodman's daughter, Eloise, is recovering from an accident, in which she was thrown from a horse while taking riding lessons at Hollins College.

Jack Higginbotham has returned to his home here after spending a few weeks in Hot Spring, Ark.

Wilcon Hix is recovering from his recent auto accident.

Rev. R. E. Redding was rushed to the hospital this morning. He is suffering from intestinal flu and other complications and considerable anxiety is felt for the popular pastor of the Appomattox Presbyterian church.

Miss Maggie Hix and Mrs. Edith Hix spent Wednesday at the home of A. R. Harwood.

"A Hoodooded Coon" will be presented by local talent of Vera at the Vera school auditorium, December 17, 1932, at 7:30 P. M. Admission: children, 15c, Adults, 25c.

Notice

Dorothy Covington, one of the graduates of high school here, has completed a course in Beauty Culture, and is now in 415 Allied Art Bldg., Lynchburg, and will be glad to have her friends call to see her and get a permanent for Christmas.

Abolition of county school boards in Virginia, as they are at present constituted, and transference of their duties to the boards of supervisors will be recommended in the report of the Senate Committee on Economy, it was definitely determined by that body yesterday.

Into the discard with the boards would go their clerks. It will be proposed that the clerical duties now performed by these officials be given over to the clerks of the circuit courts.

A kindred recommendation will be that the number of division school superintendents be reduced "materially." There are now 112 of these officials in the State, ninety for the counties and twenty-two for the cities. The committee has been told by one in a position to know that the number of county superintendents may be reduced to sixty without disturbing the efficiency of school administration. It has been suggested that, in the case of a small city, one superintendent would do for the city and the county in which it is located.

Quite a number of people from around here attended the uneral of Mr. A. J. Monger, held Sunday afternoon at Bethehem Methodist church, Concord.

Fisherman Lands Pike and Hawk in Same Net

Stockholm.—To catch a pike and a hawk in the same net is something which does not happen to many fishermen, but Karl Sohlman, of Tosmte, in the province of Vermland, has just accomplished the feat.

A large and powerful pike was caught in the net and a hawk, watching the attempts of the fish to free itself, swooped down in the hope of a meal. But its claws became tangled in the meshes and Sohlman hauled in a double catch. The bird was an unusually large specimen, measuring more than 3.28 feet between the wing tips.

STATE TAX MEN AND BANKERS IN ACCORD

Months of Negotiation Lead to Agreement on Changes Broadening Method of State or Local Taxation of National Banks.

NEW YORK.—Months of conference and negotiation between an American Bankers Association special committee and the Committee of the Association of States on Bank Taxation have resulted in an agreement on a form of amendment to the Federal statute dealing with state or local taxation of national banks that "maintains the integrity of the protective principles of the section and is satisfactory to the commissioners' committee," says the American Bankers Association Journal.

Thomas B. Paton, the organization's General Counsel, in making the announcement says that previously proposed amendments to the statute, which is known as Section 5219, have been opposed when it was felt their terms would enable any state to place banks in a tax class by themselves.

"The law as it stands today," Mr. Paton says, "permits state or local taxation of national banks or their shareholders in one or the other of the four following forms: the shareholders upon their shares,—a property tax; the shareholders upon their dividends,—a personal income tax; the bank upon its net income; the bank according to or measured by its net income. Only one form of tax can be imposed, except that the dividend tax may be combined with the third or fourth form if other corporations and shareholders are likewise taxed.

"The conditions permitted are: the tax on shares must be at no greater rate than on other competing moneyed capital; the income tax on shareholders must be at no greater rate than on net income from other moneyed capital; the tax on bank net income must be at no higher rate than on other financial corporations nor the highest rates on mercantile and manufacturing corporations doing business within the State; the tax measured by net bank income is subject to the same limitations as the tax on net income of the bank but may include entire net income from all sources."

To Voters of the Town of Appomattox

If you want to vote in town election next June you have to pay to the county treasurer your capitation taxes for the years 1930, 1931 and 1932 on or before Deecember 13.

WHERE WEATHER MAN ACTS LIKE VILLAIN

It Was Real Hot in Kansas This Summer.

Topeka, Kan.—It has been rather hot all over the United States this summer, but in Kansas the weather man has been acting up like a demon.

For instance, Jude Trowbridge is a farmhand in Gove county. He was employed on the farm of Rev. Gerrit Snyder near Gove City. One afternoon he was directed to walk over to some stacks of barley and bring in some equipment. He walked through the barley stubble and his feet kept getting hotter and hotter. He looked down and both feet were actually on fire. The friction of the leather of his shoes on the hot ground and the hot straw of the stubble actually set his shoes on fire. Trowbridge took off his shoes and began fighting the fire in the stubble field. Others came to his aid and when the fire was out Trowbridge was taken to Dr. R. L. Gruinfield and his burned feet dressed.

Boiled Goldfish.

The records of the Kansas state fire marshal contain authentic reports of numerous fires in homes caused entirely by sun rays. In one instance the sun rays struck the beveled edge of a mirror and then reflected to the rug and set the rug on fire. In another home a bubble in the glass of a window made a magnifying glass of the spot and set fire to a bed.

W. A. Smith of Saskatoon walked into the living room of his home late one afternoon and noted that the goldfish were dead. He reached into the bowl and his hand was blistered. A sun ray had struck the bowl and had literally boiled the fish to death. At least that's his story and he has the bowl but no fish to show for it.

There have been innumerable fires caused by steel getting too hot. Some stacks of hay and wheat have been burned and many fields swept by fire as the result of pitchforks standing in the hay or straw and catching the hot rays of the sun. There are a few instances of where pieces of wire left in stubble fields have become so hot as to set fire to stubble, and there are a few reports of where high and dead grass along fences have been set on fire by the heat of the wires.

Cars Driven Backwards.

It is not an unusual sight to see motor cars of a certain well-known type being driven backwards across the Kansas prairies. The burning sun on the differential on the rear axle had burned out the grease and wrecked the gears so that the cars would not run forward at all. Tourists had to drive home or to the next service station sitting on the dashboards and piloting the car backwards.

But the hot weather has been great for the birds. They got cooked insects. Motorists driving across the prairies strike grasshoppers and butterflies and other insects in large numbers. The heat of the radiators and the boiling sun cooked the insects. When the cars stopped anywhere the birds swarmed down upon the front of the car and began to eat. Some motorists were kind enough to spread a blanket over the hrness and lumps so the birds could pick the insects in comfort and not get their feet burned.

Yep, it surely has been terrifically hot in Kansas—as well as other places.

Friction Ignites Comb When Schoolboy Falls

Corona, Calif.—Slipping and falling while crossing the schoolroom, Stuart Clayson, pupil at a school here, suffered no apparent injury and, taking his seat, began studying. Almost immediately he felt a burning sensation. At first he thought it the after effects of the fall but as the pain increased he saw smoke curling around him. Hurried investigation showed a celluloid comb in his back pocket had been ignited, presumably by friction, as he slid across the floor in his fall. Before the blaze could be extinguished the boy was burned severely.

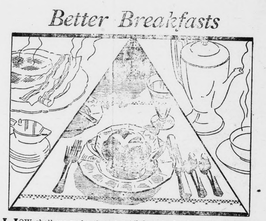
Better Breakfasts



HOW shall we make them better? The better food, better table-setting and better disposition. The latter will be inevitable. Use glassware instead of china in every piece for setting. It is inexpensive, and it suggests a fresh, new spread that is a splendid way to start the day. Orange pink dishes on a green cloth are pretty. So is white crystal on a flowered glass cloth. Both of your hostess's Pyrex glassware on each small linen damask.

And now, gateway for the better food! Be sure that it is colorful food. Did you know that golden brown is one of the most appetizing color for foods? Well, here is an autumn menu of molten browns, reds and golds.

The Food Calendar

THE calendar does much to keep life from becoming monotonous. Whether or no, we must change our bathing suits for fur coats and our golf sticks for skis. Once upon a time we had to change our food, whether or no—until canned foods came along and gave us our favorite strawberries in winter and oysters in summer.

All the same, it is just as well to have a food calendar and jot down, from the long list of food in cans, those that especially appeal for each season. Here are some suggestions.

Add Yours to These

Fall: Kidney beans, beets, okra with tomatoes, green peppers, pumpkin, cider, sweet potatoes, sauerkraut, apple butter, wine, fruit salad, oysters, codfish, tuna, salmon, frankfurters, veal roast, mutton broth, apricots, pears.

Winter: Beans with pork, cabbage, whole kernel corn, hominy, cranberry sauce, figs, prunes, mackerel, oysters, chili con carne, fruit cake, mincemeat, popcorn, fig pudding, plum pudding, spaghetti with tomato sauce, corned beef, beef stew, whole ham, Boston brown bread, turkey, mulligatawny soup, okra soup, vermicelli, Irish stew, sausages with sauerkraut.

Spring: Artichokes, broccoli, carrots and peas, mushrooms, spinach, turnip greens, vegetable salad, rhubarb, shrimps, lobster, clam cakes, creamed white potatoes, sliced bacon, deviled chicken, tongue, veal roast, creamed chicken soup, pea soup.

Summer: Asparagus tips, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, mustard greens, fruits for salad, berries, cherries, peaches, pineapple, clams, shad roe, crab meat, grapefruit juice, whole chicken, veal loaf, chicken broth, purée of celery soup.

DON'T GET UP NIFHTS

—Make This 25c Test—

Don't wake up for bladder relief. Physic the bladder as you would the bowels. Drive out impurities and excessive acids which cause the irritation resulting in wakeful nights, leg pains, backache, burning and frequent desire. BUKETS, the bladder physic, made from buchu, juniper oil, etc., works effectively on the bladder as castor oil on the bowels. Get a regular 25c box and after four days if not relieved of getting up nights your druggist will return your money. Make this test. You are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep.
